di Rosa Center for Contemporary Art Launches Downtown Napa Gallery with Beast Mode

In partnership with First Street Napa and Zapolski Real Estate LLC, di Rosa Downtown presents rotating exhibitions highlighting works from the di Rosa collection.

Napa, CA (December 2, 2024) – di Rosa Center for Contemporary Art is pleased to announce di Rosa Downtown: a satellite exhibition space in downtown Napa, opening to the public December 7, 2024.

di Rosa Downtown will feature rotating exhibitions drawn from the di Rosa collection and highlighting new works by artists currently living and working in Northern California. Originally collected by Rene and Veronica di Rosa, the collection contains over 1600 works by artists living or working in the San Francisco Bay Area from mid-twentieth century to the early twenty-first century, highlighting a story of experimentation by the artists of the region.

di Rosa Downtown will open with Beast Mode, an exhibition of works featuring animal imagery drawn from the di Rosa collection. Highlighting works by artists including Roy De Forest, Deborah Butterfield, and Inez Storer, the exhibition presents work in a wide range of styles, media, and tones, from whimsical to minimalist. Uniting the wide variety of works is a careful appreciation of the animal world, whether wild beast or beloved companion.
